A Very Strange Intercession. In a church where the prayers are made at the discretion of the minister very strange intercessions are sometimes presented. I remember well ages since hearing old Dr. Muir of Glasgow, who was a real though eccentric genius in his day and of whom no English reader ever heard, relate an incident which had been in his own knowledge. "Mr. Smith was preaching at Drumsleekie, and he had come to the concluding prayer, where we pray for all and sundries (sic), when he suddenly remembered that he had forgotten to pray for the magistrates. So he put in the prayer just where he was, 'Have mercy upon all fools and idiots and specially upon the magistrates of Drumsleekie.' He meant no but the magistrates were not pleased."-Longman's Magazine.
